

Owned and operated by the Autelitano family, the Agriturismo La Spina Santa has been producing liquors, sweets and bergamot specialties since 1989. The farmhouse and production facility are located in Bova Marina, a small town 40 km from Reggio Calabria, Italy. Located 500 meters from the sea and the beautiful beaches of Calabria, the farmhouse is immersed in a circle of hills among the greenery of the bergamot plantations. La Spina Santa continually offers care and craftsmanship in all stages of development proving their products remain unique and authentic.

Bergotto

Bergotto is a carbonated beverage flavored with Bergamot, a popular citrus fruit grown in southern Italy known for its health benefits, digestive properties and flavoring in Earl Grey tea. This unique beverage is produced in the region of Calabria where the bergamot fruit flourishes. Bergotto should be served cold and can be enjoyed by itself or mixed with alcoholic and nonalcoholic drinks.

“Bergotto is full of flavor and refreshing. It is a cool, thirst-quenching and digestive drink with real bergamot juice!”
